Destroy My Evil Empire Of Sin And Wickedness, My Son

“My son, I Am going to destroy My Empire. This Christian Empire shall be no more because My people refuse to do My will. Everywhere My people resist Me to the max and refuse to preach My Gospel overseas, which I called them to do, My son. Everywhere My people are raising families, and doing their own thing in the world, My son. They have married themselves unto this wicked world, and refuse to give it up unto Me, My son. Everywhere they worship Me wholeheartedly, but their hearts are far from Me because they refuse to obey Me ever, preferring to do their own will in making money, and doing their own thing in raising families. Those things I have called for them to give up for Me, which they refuse to do. So I will take away their houses, and reduce their lands that they live on. This empire shall be destroyed and consumed by fires and volcanic eruptions everywhere. What shall it take to get My people to obey Me, My son? Land shall collapse into the ocean, and their houses shall be few in number, consumed by wildfire and tornadoes everywhere. My people will have to flee to Me for protection, for the furious wrath of God shall consume them everywhere. Whole mountain ranges shall be on fire by furious volcanic eruptions everywhere, My son. My enemies shall be few, for I shall consume them off the land by My wrath, My son. Few will be left to serve Me, for they have disobeyed Me for centuries, even hundreds of years, disobeying Me to the max, refusing to obey Me in preaching My Gospel around the world. This land shall be consumed, and shall be no more, only barren desert and destroyed cities of sin where they once lived, My son. Such will be the end of evil Babylon, called America, and shall be no more, My son. My people shall be eliminated off the land by war and disease, and plagues of all kinds, starving to death en-masse. Such is the end of those who stubbornly refuse to obey Me year after year, My son. Your LORD has spoken, amen."
